

Location of Khmer Rouge prisons and killing fields in Democratic Kampuchea (now Cambodia)

Main routes of forced evacuation of cities and towns by Democratic Kampuchea

Sept 2011 © Narrowcasters & Associates Co., Ltd.

The Choeng Ek Genocidal Center and Narrowcasters thank the following for their help in preparing this audio tour:

Madame Tith Kim, Mr Neang Say, Mr Suon Sovann

Dr Helen Jarvis, Dr Him Sophy

The Municipality of Phnom Penh

Cambodian Living Arts (www.cambodianlivingarts.org)

Bophana Audiovisual Resource Center (www.bophana.org)

Transcultural Psychosocial Organisation

(www.tpocambodia.org)

Documentation Center of Cambodia (www.dccam.org)

Choeng Ek is the most well known of over 300 killing fields throughout Cambodia. For further information about the Democratic Kampuchea regime, headed by Pol Pot, we encourage you to visit both our Museum here and the Tuol Sleng Genocide Museum in Phnom Penh.

You may also want to visit the following websites:

Khmer Rouge Tribunal www.eccc.gov.kh/en/;

Yale University's Cambodian Genocide Program

www.yale.edu/cgp; and Cambodia Tribunal Monitor

www.cambodiatribunal.org

Choeng Ek Genocidal Center is located approx 15km southeast of the city, in Choeng Ek Commune Khan Dangkor, Phnom Penh www.cekillingfield.com

THE CHOENG EK GENOCIDAL CENTER

AUDIO TOUR OF THE KILLING FIELDS

The audio tour ends at the Memorial Stupa where the remains of Choeng Ek's victims are reverently preserved.

Audio Tour by Narrowcasters

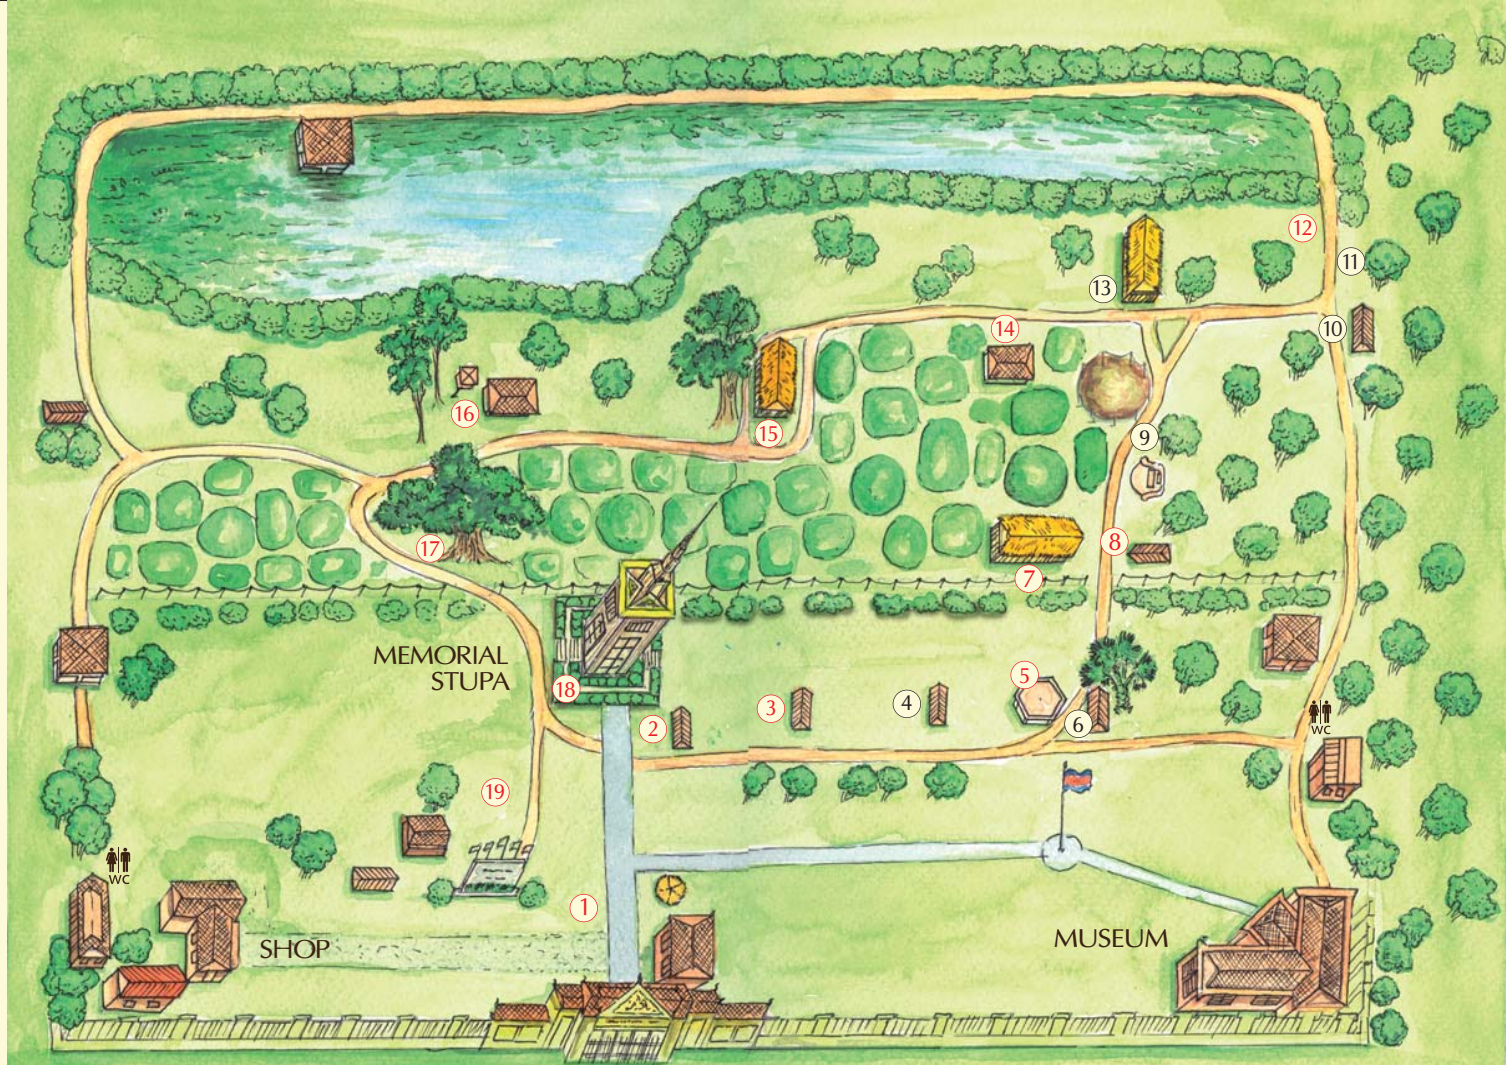

AUDIO TOUR STOP LIST

For more information, please listen to the layers – 101, 201, etc.
Red numbers are suggested stops for visitors with limited time.

- 1 Introduction and walk to Stop 2
101 Pol Pot and the Khmer Rouge march into Phnom Penh, 17th April 1975
- 2 Sign: Truck Stop
201 Him Huy, Khmer Rouge Guard and Executioner
- 3 Sign: Dark and Gloomy Detention
301 Pol Pot and the Khmer Rouge
- 4 Sign: The Executioners' Working Office
- 5 Former Chinese Ceremonial Kiosk
- 6 Sign: Chemical Substances Storage Room
- 7 Mass Grave: 450 Victims
- 8 Sign: Killing Tools Storage Room. How people were killed
- 9 Chinese Grave. Bones and Teeth Fragments
- 10 Longan Orchard. People worked to death by Angkar
- 11 Walk on path by lake: Music and Memories
111 'A Memory from Darkness' by Him Sophy
- 12 Survivor Stories - may be heard anywhere at any time
121 Loss of an infant
122 Witness to a killing
123 Rape leads to shame
124 One man's story (125 - 129)
125 The first day, forced to leave home
126 In the village, his cousin killed in front of him
127 Anger, isolation, his mother's dream, hope
128 Arrested and beaten; saved by a stranger's sacrifice
129 Escapes to America, returns for revenge, healing
- 13 Mass Grave: 166 Victims Without Heads
- 14 Glass Box: Victims' Clothing
141 The Khmer Rouge at the UN. Pol Pot's last years
- 15 The Killing Tree
151 Former Prison Director Duch at Choeung Ek: A Killer Confesses
- 16 Glass Box: Victims' Bones and Teeth. Spirit House
- 17 The Magic Tree
- 18 Memorial Stupa
181 Design and Meaning of the Stupa
- 19 Farewell
191 'Oh Phnom Penh' instrumental 192 'Oh Phnom Penh' vocal

Please return your audio player to the tour desk near Stop 1.

Map by Graphic Roots, Phnom Penh

This is a memorial site. Please dress modestly, speak quietly, and do not smoke during your visit.

Player instructions: Please enter the stop number in your audio player. You may pause it and also rewind it to hear something over.

Visitors may wish to pay their respects at the Memorial Stupa at the beginning of their visit.

Audio Tour by Narrowcasters