PRESS RELEASE

WIDE RANGING SUPPORT SECURED FOR THE REPARATIONS FOR VICTIMS OF THE KHMER ROUGE REGIME

Wide ranging support has been secured for the Civil Parties' reparation projects requested in Case 002/01 before the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia (ECCC). These reparation projects will benefit victims of the Democratic Kampuchea regime from 1975-1979. The Victims Support Section (VSS) and the Civil Party Lead Co-Lawyers Section (LCLS) who are leading this groundbreaking effort to bring redress to the survivors of the Khmer Rouge regime, wish to express gratitude to all current donors as well as governmental authorities and civil society organizations for their contributions either financially, politically or technically to the 13 reparation projects requested in Case 002/01.

Civil Parties seek the Trial Chamber's recognition of the reparation projects in Case 002/01 which aim to provide formal acknowledgement to the victims of the Khmer Rouge regime in order to mitigate the harms and suffering they have experienced, to preserve collective memory and restore victims' dignity. In case of conviction of the accused, the Trial Chamber may grant moral and collective reparations to the Civil Parties in its judgment if certain conditions are fulfilled; among them the requirement for documentation of sufficient external funding for each proposed project. The Trial Chamber has previously set the deadline of 31 March 2014 by which Civil Parties must submit any further documentation and information on the reparation projects they seek in Case 002/01, including updates on funding.

Having passed the deadline of 31 March 2014, the VSS and the LCLS are pleased to announce that for all requested reparations projects where funding was needed, sufficient voluntary financial contributions have been secured, except for one project. Please see the table attached to this press release for information about the proposed projects and funding submitted to the Trial Chamber.

The VSS is an official organ of the ECCC, and it is mandated to facilitate and coordinate victims' participation in the ECCC proceedings, except legal representation. Furthermore, the Section is mandated to seek external funding and support and, in close cooperation with the Civil Party Lead Co-Lawyers, to identify, design and later implement reparation projects.

10. Community Peace Learning Center in Samrong Khnong	Youth for Peace (YfP)	A Community Peace Learning Center (CPLC) will be constructed and maintained in Samrong Khnong village, Battambang province—a historical sight where mass killings of the Khmer Rouge Regime occurred. The CPLC will consist of an information center, a museum and a dialogue room. The community will contribute human and financial resources to the development and maintenance of the CPLC which aims to transform the site’s negative past into a positive future by engaging the local community and civil parties in transforming the site into a place of commemoration, remembrance, dialogue and education.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Swiss Agency for Development and Cooperation (SDC)
11. Illustrated Civil Party Storybook	Cambodian Human Rights Action Committee (CHRAC)	The project will produce a second edition of CHRAC’s book of civil party stories. The book project transforms civil parties into narrators, telling their stories both in written narratives and illustrative artworks. The book will allow those whose voices are normally perceived as powerless, and marginalized to be heard and a sense of justice delivered through recognition and acknowledgment.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Gesellschaft für internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ)
12. Publication & Distribution of Case 002/01 Judgment	Civil Party Lead Co Lawyer Section (LCLS) Victims Support Section Public Affairs Section	This project seeks to provide civil parties with the Case 002/01 judgment both in its full text as well as a summary version. The summary version will be the official ECCC summary and/or a specially developed summary text intended to be accessible and interesting to civil parties, their families and the general public. It will explain the judgment and civil party participation in the proceedings in layperson’s terms. The text will be accompanied by informative and entertaining illustrations that will help to explain the main points of the text.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ German Federal Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development (BMZ) ▪ Public Affairs Section ▪ Ambassador David Scheffer
